Market Maker Obligations at Eurex, effective
February 1, 2010 (only on the Eurex website)

1. In the future, strike prices of Eurex options on shares of Volkswagen AG ordinary shares (VOW) and Volkswagen AG preferred shares (VO3) will be displayed with two decimals (formerly one decimal). This will be implemented after the batch run on January 29, 2010, effective Monday, February 1, 2010.
2. Furthermore, the Management Boards of the Eurex Exchanges decided to change decimal places for the minimum price change for the single stock futures contract on ordinary shares on Volkswagen AG (VOWF) from 0.01 to 0.001, effective February 1, 2010.
2. The equity option on Volkswagen ordinary shares (VOW) will be assigned to Market-Making spread class 2, effective February 1, 2010.

For a documentation of the change, please refer to the Document "Market Maker Obligations at Eurex", which is available on the Eurex website under the following path:
