Eurex Exchange Readiness Newsflash | Trading Hours Extension

Dear Eurex participant,

Today we would like to draw your attention to the extension of the Eurex trading hours, which will become effective on Monday, 10 December 2018. With this readiness news, we want to guide you through a smooth readiness, covering the following topics:

1. Registration of new trading locations
2. Registration of contacts for Asian trading hours
3. Provision of the readiness statement (due 23 November latest)
4. New publications available for your convenience

1. Registration of new trading locations

In case you plan to conduct your trading activity during Asian trading hours out of a new trading location, which has not yet been announced to us, you should urgently approach your Key Account Manager. The announcement of a trading location may include the following additional steps:

1. On boarding of new Traders, including trader exam and system training
2. Set-up of additional Sessions and User IDs including entitlement- and enrichment rules
3. Set-up of Order-Routing-Systems

2. Registration of contacts for Asian trading hours

As communicated via Eurex Circular 088/18, Trading Participants who have open orders in the order book during the extended trading hours or actively participate in trading during these hours, must ensure that a responsible person or contact number ("Emergency Contact") is supplied. The availability of this Emergency Contact is a requirement defined in the amended Eurex Exchange rules (effective on 03 December). In case you have not yet submitted your Emergency Contact, please do so by following the instructions of our previous readiness email or contact your Key Account Manager Trading. The dedicated PIN for your company has been sent to the Central Coordinator. The PIN will allow you to provide us the Emergency Contact.

3. Provision of the readiness statement – due 23 November

Please confirm your readiness for the Trading Hours Extension. For your convenience, we have integrated this in the readiness statement of T7 Release 7.0, so that you only need to provide one readiness statement. In case you have not yet submitted your readiness statement, please do so by following the instructions of our previous readiness email. The dedicated PIN for your company has been sent to the Central Coordinator. The PIN will allow you to submit the readiness statement.

4. New publications

We recently published a circular announcing the rule changes as well as an overview of the technical implications related to the introduction of the trading hours extension: Circular 088/2018. Additionally we have published an FAQ document, covering various topics.

Please find all information about the initiative on our dedicated page on our website:
