We will provide preliminary 3.8 simulation release notes beginning of August 2022, with full details of the release contents. Please note that the above schedule and dates are subject to change.

Mandatory Releases

Mandatory releases can include new functionality in the F7 API/FIX to support new products, segments or additional functionalities on existing segments and products. These releases will impact member or vendor developed software and will require at minimum a recompilation of the message definitions.

Changes to Technical Requirements

Changes to technical requirements (browser upgrades, library changes) will normally be made in combination with a mandatory release and full details will always be communicated in the preliminary and final release notes.

Best regards,

Your Eurex Repo Team
